13	I have always known of LHGC and have played the course a number of times over many years. I found that the travelling to Walsall GC, where I had been a member for over 40 years, was beginning to be tiresome, and so looked for a more local Club which I enjoyed playing. I know several LHGC members who told me of the friendly atmosphere generated by the Club, so both the 'push' factors from the location of Walsall GC and the 'pull' factors from LHGC were the main attractions.	8/30/2018 12:49 PM

11	I have only been a member for a few weeks and am still getting my bearings and finding out about the way to play the course, but I have enjoyed every aspect of my membership thus far. The Professional staff and the bar staff have been very helpful, the members that I have met have been extremely friendly, and I am beginning to 'settle in'. I just can't read the greens though!	8/30/2018 12:49 PM
12	Very friendly and receptive staff, from pro shop to bar staff to office	8/23/2018 7:08 AM
13	Greens a little quicker..and over seeding new fairways on par 5s..drainage lines improved	8/22/2018 5:38 AM
14	I'm new so still finding my feet ,maybe comp entry system could be on line might make it easier for people that work to plan around them	8/21/2018 8:43 AM
15	One of the main reasons I play golf is still to play competitive sport. As a new member I have limited playing partners. I have found it very difficult to play in as many competitions as I would have liked as there is no formal system to enter competitions. Also on the Summer knock out competitions I entered leaving my telephone number on the sheet, but in every case I was unable to contact my playing partner and ended up being eliminated without hitting a ball. This was very frustrating and I had never had this problem before at my previous club. I understand this is a private members club, however a better system of assuring you can get access to play in competitions is a must for me to remain as a member.	8/20/2018 9:24 AM

27	Overall very happy with moving to the club. A very friendly club. Sometimes it's hard to figure out what competition is happening and when. Good range of communications from club as well and feel that the club actually cares about its members	8/17/2018 2:35 PM
28	There should be 2 separate questions re: friendly/easy to get a game. Very friendly. But there are to many players from other clubs and a lot of societies making it difficult sometime to get a game	8/17/2018 2:25 PM
29	After moving from Shifnal where they use an online booking system, I find it quite frustrating that I have to hang around the 1st tee for some considerable time to get started. As I haven't managed to get into a group I feel that it is off putting to try and get a game on Saturday or Sunday which is generally the only time I get to play 18 holes. Also I find that there seems to be an awful lot of tee restrictions to satisfy society bookings.	8/17/2018 1:28 PM

31	None	8/17/2018 12:45 PM
